THE MINISTER OF LABOUR (SHRI SAHIB SINGH VERMA): (a) Yes, Sir,

(b) and (c) During the discussions the presentatives of social partners expressed their views which were divergent in respect of many recommendations. However, there was convergence of views on certain recommendations such as introduction of umbrella legislation for workers in the unorganized sector and agricultural labour; creation of a skill development fund for training and re-training of workers; encouragement of small scale industries, agri-business and rural sector for higher employment generation; consolidation of social security legislations and establishment of a social security system; and bringing attitudinal change and change in the mindset and work culture on the part of both worker and the employer.

Cut in outlays for some States for Tenth Plan

*58. SHRI K. NATWAR SINGH:
DR. T. SUBBARAMI REDDY:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Planning Commission has cut outlays of fourteen States for Tenth Plan;

(b) if so, whether the main reason is that these States have shown their inability to handle big budgets and have accepted lower outlays for the Tenth Plan compared to the Ninth Plan;

(c) if so, what are these States; and

(d) to what extent, this cut of outlays would affect development in these States:

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PLANNING (SHRIMATI VASUNDHARA RAJE) : (a) to (c) Plan Outlays of States are agreed upon by the Planning Commission with the State Government concerned based on the financial resources available to the State. The Tenth Plan Outlay of only one State, i.e. Assam is lower than the Ninth Plan Outlay. A Statement indicating comparative outlays for all States is enclosed. (See below)

(d) The projected outlays of Rs 8315.24 crores for the Tenth Plan of Assam is higher than the Ninth Plan expenditure of Rs. 7211.44 crores by about 15 percent.
